Wages and Labour:—Owing to the inauguration of Ginning Factories, Presses and other Industrial concerns in the neighbouring States the rates of wages have shown a steady tendency to rise.

Monsoon:—Although monsoon broke out in time this year, the total rainfall was below normal. Due, however, to a well distributed shower, the crops generally matured satisfactorily.

Colonization:— Under a Colonization scheme sanctioned by the Durbar some new settlers from the Punjab side arrived here and took possession of land but it appears that only a few out of them have actually settled down and brought culturable waste land under the plough.

CONCESSIONS APPERTAINING TO CULTIVATORS.

UN-IRRIGATED LANDS.

1. The culturable waste lands are classed as ‘Tashkhisi’ and ‘Bila-Tashkhisi’.

Tashkhisi lands are those which were under cultivation and were assessed to rent at the time of the last Settlement though they may have ceased to be under cultivation during subsequent period, while lands which were not under cultivation and were therefore not assessed to rent at the time of the last Settlement are called 'Bila-Tashkhisi' lands.

2. Tashkhisi Culturable Waste Lands:—Cultivators desirous of bringing Tashkhisi lands under cultivation are charged $\frac{1}{3}$ th of the full rent in the first year; $\frac{1}{2}$ in the second year and full rent in the 3rd year, which varies from -/6/- to Rs. 2/- per bigha according to the class of the soil.

3. Bila-Tashkhisi Culturable Waste Lands:—Two kinds of concessions are attached to this class of land any one of which can be availed of by the cultivator:—

- (a) Long Term (Permanent) Concession:—This is made to extend over 13 years; full rate, which continues till the next Settlement, being charged from the 14th year. Under the long term concession no rent is charged for the first 3 years; a progressive rate which consummates into full rate (varying from -/6/- to a maximum of Re. 1/- per bigha) in the 14th year, being charged from the 4th year.
- (b) Short Term (Temporary) Concession:—In this case no rent is charged during the first year but from the second year a fixed rate ranging from annas four to annas twelve per bigha is charged in different Nizamats.

IRRIGATED LANDS.

1. Any new Piwat which is brought into being is charged at from Rs2/8/- to Rs 3/8/- per bigha according to the quality of soil irrigated as against Rs. 5/- per bigha on old Piwat.

2. If a cultivator extends his existing Piwat area by improving his existing means of irrigation or by building a new Pucca or Katcha-Pucca well, he is charged only a Mal rate (i.e. rent due on un-irrigated land) thereon, for the first ten years after which period the full 'New Piwat' rate according to Para 1 above is charged.

3. Any area of land which used to be irrigated at the time of the last Settlement but which after having fallen into disuse is again brought under irrigation, is charged at $\frac{1}{3}$ th the Settlement Piwat rate in the first year, at $\frac{1}{2}$ the rate in the 2nd year, and at the full Piwat rate from the 3rd year.

4. On KUTCHA WELLS the following concessions are granted:—

- (a) If a cultivator irrigates land by sinking a new Katcha well, the land so irrigated is charged at the Mal rate during the first 3 years, and from the 4th year onward, only the 'New Piwat' rate is charged thereon.
- (b) If a cultivator having already enjoyed the concession noted under (a) above for 3 years on his Katcha well, turns it into a Pucca one, he will be allowed to enjoy the concessional rate for 7 years more.
- (c) If a cultivator increases the irrigated area on his existing well by sinking it deeper he is charged new Piwat rate on the increase. But, if he extends the existing area without doing so the rent of the irrigated area so extended is charged at Rs 3/8/- per bigha.

MISCELLANEOUS.

1. No tenant in the Jhalawar State can be evicted from his holding as long as he pays his rent without default. Even in case of default he is usually not evicted unless a rival comes forward to claim the land.

The only exception to this rule occurs when land in the occupancy of a tenant is requisitioned for any public purpose, in which case, a reasonable compensation is awarded to the occupier.

2. New settlers have recently been granted Proprietary Rights which entitle them to dispose of their land by gift, mortgage or sale to local inhabitants; and to outsiders, with the approval of the Darbar.

This privilege has also been extended to local tenants on the condition that they undertake to maintain their present holdings.

3. In Civil suits the following property of the tenants is considered as exempt from attachment:—

- (a) Agricultural Implements.
- (b) Bullocks used for Agricultural purposes.
- (c) Dwelling houses and enclosures for keeping cattle.
- (d) Grain required to maintain the family for one full year.
- (e) Necessary utensils and clothes

4. In the case of the occurrence of a general calamity, the Darbar usually stay executions of civil decrees against tenants for a certain period until the exigency lasts.

5. If grass is cut by a cultivator from 'Bila-Tashkhis' lands a nominal rate of annas 8 per bigha is charged. These rates vary according to different localities but are lower than the Mal rates.

6. If any part of cultivated land remains uncultivated successively for 2 years, such uncultivated land is struck off the holding of the cultivator in the 2nd year. Similarly if Piwat area remains un-irrigated continuously for 4 years, the Piwat rate ceases and the Mal rate comes into operation from the 4th year.

7. In the case of an exhausted soil, the tenant is given the option of exchanging it with other productive culturable waste land of his own choice.

8. Mango, Mhowa, Jamun and Tamarind trees, if planted by tenants, or any body else, in Parat State lands, are treated as the property of the planter and no rent is charged for land occupied by such plantation.

9. Culturable waste lands are granted free to persons intending to lay out gardens; but if a land which is already under cultivation is converted into a garden, a consolidated amount, representing 10 years' rent, is charged thereon.

10. Remissions commensurate with the loss are granted in case of damage to crops caused by hail-storm, frost, rust, locusts or heavy or scanty rainfall.
11. No grazing fee is charged to cows, buffaloes, bullocks etc., belonging to the cultivators.
12. For fencing purposes thorny bushes, brushwood etc. are given free if available.
13. In respect of culturable waste lands new settlers are granted a rent free period of 7 years for purposes of Industrial Plantations; while for purposes of cultivation they are allowed a rent-free period of 3 years.
14. The concessions granted to New-Settlers have also been extended to the local cultivators provided they undertake to maintain their present holdings.

CUSTOMS

General:—During the year under report the import tax on medicines was abolished.

A free depot of Petrol and Kerosene was established at Shri Chhatrapur Station and it was exonerated from the payment of any tax on oil sold to foreign States.

The export tax on grains was enhanced from -/3/- to -/6/- per Maund on 1st August, 1939.

One Oil Mill and a Sugar Mill were started at Bhawani Mandi by Seth Pestonji. By way of giving an impetus to the Industry, the proprietor was granted the privilege of importing all oil seeds produced in the State, duty-free.

Mandis:-There are two Mandis in the Jhalawar State, named Bhawani-ganj & Rajendrapur. These were established in the years 1911 and 1915 respectively, during the time of His late Highness Maharaj Rana Sir Bhawani Singhji Bahadur, who, with the object of giving impetus to local trade, felt anxious to create duty-free zones at important Centres of the State.

The Magna Charta of these duty-free zones grants them freedom from the levy of any duties on goods imported into the specified area from, or exported to, any place, other than the Jhalawar State.

Both the Mandis being conveniently situated at Railway heads, are doing good business, particularly Bhawani Mandi. The trade has appreciably grown in volume and the Mandis have considerably expanded since their inception.

The export trade of the Mandis consists chiefly of food grains and Cotton. During the year under report about one hundred thousand Maunds of grain of local produce & about another one hundred thousand maunds of foreign produce as well as about 32 thousand maunds of Cotton were exported from the markets.

Local Industries:- These are really very few, but the more important of those in existence at Brijnagar and Patan are the Bidi Manufacturing and Percussion Caps Manufacturing Industries. These industries help appreciably to reduce unemployment. As they are private concerns, figures showing the results of their working are not available.

Income & Expenditure:- The total income derived from the Customs department amounted to Rs. 1,01,418/7/9 against the budgetted estimate of Rs. 93,000/- showing an increase of Rs. 8,418/7/9.

The total expenditure for the year under report was Rs. 22,116/6/- against Rs. 21,028,5/5- of the last year.

(1) THE COURTS OF JUSTICE.

The following are the Courts of Justice in the Jhalawar State:—

The Judicial business of SHRI RAJENDRA IJLAS is transacted by a Judicial Committee, the personnel of which is composed of men of the highest status and integrity specifically appointed by His Highness for that purpose. All petitions of mercy to Shri Rajendra Ijlas are submitted through, and with the recommendation of the High Court.

During the year under report 4 Judicial appeals were decided by Shri Rajendra Ijlas of which 3 were of a civil nature and 1 criminal.
